PICEA CANADENSIS—Black Hill Spruce.

We call your special attention to our fine stock of Black Hill Spruce. This is one of the very best Spruces now grown. Extremely hardy, never known to winter scald. Easy to handle and moderately rapid in growth.

In transplanted sizes we offer some extra quality plants well formed, roots and top. The Black Hill Spruce grows bushy and round, this being true of the very small plants as well as large trees.

We will send a sample if you desire.
